 The SPD provides additional guidance to help implement Local Plan policies and its use by employees for development management purposes will have a positive impact facilitating the development management process in helping determine planning applications. The Hot Food Takeaway SPD aims to reduce the trends towards increasing levels of obesity and poor diet throughout the district by tackling issues of over concentration of hot food takeaways in centres and in particular the exposure to vulnerable groups such as school children, however the principles of good health apply to all residents regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage, pregnancy, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation.

 The SPD sets out the approach for determining proposals for hot food takeaways which will be used by the council's development management teams in determining planning applications. The SPD has a focus on implications for noise, odour, waste disposal and highway safety. Evidence and guidance can be found in the Kirklees Guide for Applicants on Public Nuisance and Safety (Licensing Act - Public Nuisance and Public Safety (kirklees.gov.uk)), Kirklees Guidance on Noise, Odour and Air Quality Control (Guidance on noise, odour and air quality control for residential development in town centres (kirklees.gov.uk)), Kirklees Air Quality Assessment (Report Kirklees Council Air Quality Assessment 2017-03-16).
