1. Summary

This graph shows the number of children in care (689 excluding any looked after children receiving only S20 short term breaks) alongside the number of unaccompanied asylum-seeking children (UASC).

The current number of LAC equates to a rate per 10,000 population aged 0-17 of 68.8. This compares to a statistical neighbour average of 91.6 and a national average of 65.0 based on recently published data for March 2019.

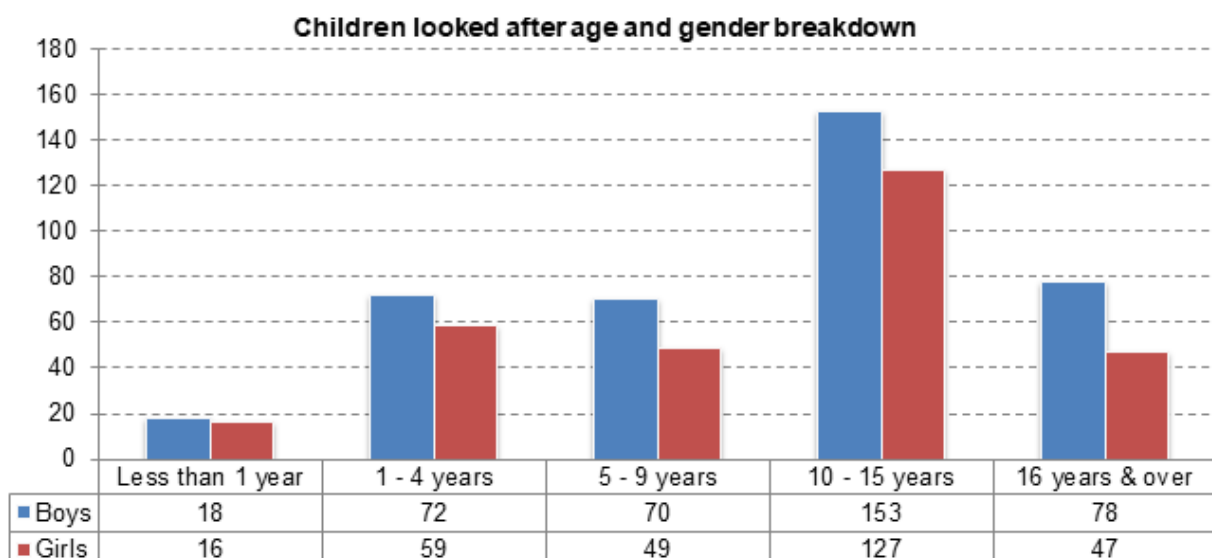

Kirklees (Aug 20) = 68.8

Statistical Neighbours (2019) = 91.6

England (2019) = 65.0

This graph shows the breakdown by age and gender of the children in care. The largest age group for boys is 10 - 15 years with 153 children and the largest age group for girls is 10 - 15 years with 127 children.

This graph shows the ethnic breakdown of the children looked after population at the end of August 2020 and the same point 12 months ago. There has been an increase of 3.2 percentage points in the proportion of LAC who are of White ethnicity compared to reductions in all other ethnicity groups.

This graph shows the percentage breakdown by ethnicity of children entering care this month. Note that this outcome is based on small numbers. In August 2020 there were 6 young people who were recorded as entering care at the point of data extraction in the month of whom 4 were White and 2 were of Asian ethnicity.

Children and Young People placed more than 20 miles outside of Kirklees

The number of looked after children placed outside Kirklees District and 20 plus miles from their home address was 81 on 31 August 2020. This follows a continuum of decline from 127 in 2017. The majority of our children and young people placed out of area are placed in foster care, the remainder are placed in children's homes, semi-independent homes, a small number in youth custody or other specialist settings.

The current Number of Children and Young People placed outside Kirklees and more than 20 miles from home is 81. This equates to 11.8% of the total LAC cohort. The recent historical position is detailed below:
