

Building regulations chargeable functions must be reviewed on an annual basis and increased as necessary to provide a self-financing position for the building control fee account.