1. Summary

- 1.1 At the panel meeting 12 November 2019 a presentation by Healthwatch Kirklees highlighted some work that it had undertaken to address concerns regarding the Single Point of Access for Mental Health.
- 1.2 Panel members were informed of the report that Healthwatch had completed that detailed the experiences of people who contacted the Single Point of Access (SPA) for adult mental health services in Kirklees and Calderdale.
- 1.3 Panel members were also informed that SWYPFT had responded to the report and had taken steps to address the issues highlighted by Healthwatch.
- 1.4 As a result of these discussions the panel agreed that this issue warranted further consideration and that scrutiny should assess the progress made by SWYPFT in enhancing the SPA for service users.
- 1.5 Representatives from SWYPFT and Healthwatch will be in attendance to provide the panel with:
- An overview of the SPA;
  - Details of work undertaken to address the findings in the Healthwatch report; and
  - Details of the engagement work undertaken with service users and other key stakeholders
- 1.6 Attached is the Healthwatch report; the SWYPFT response to the report; and a presentation submitted by SWYPFT to support the discussions that will take place at the panel meeting.
